

“Footwear Science - from Concept to Completion”

Date

Tuesday 16th February

7.00 Light refreshments

7.30 – 9.30 lectures

Audience

This program has being organized by the AAPSM and is open to all podiatrists, sports medicine professionals and senior footwear retailers. It is a unique opportunity to gain some insight beyond the marketing hype of the science behind athletic footwear, the process involved in developing an athletic shoe and practical information on what features best suit your client or yourself will also be covered

Venue

Next Generation
War memorial Drive
North Adelaide

Speakers

Mark Doherty
Simon Bartold

“Process involved in the development of an athletic shoe”

“What features for what sport and foot type”

Convenor

Andrew van Essen - Australian Academy of Podiatric Sports Medicine

To register for this evening please call

ph 83445690

or send e mail to andrew@prospectpodiatry.com